

CODE OF CONDUCT

Members of the public are to conduct themselves at all times in a manner that does not interfere with others and that is in keeping with the nature of the library's programs and services. The library provides areas in the library building for the public to read, study, select and examine library materials and to participate in related library programs. Any activity not connected with these purposes is inappropriate. Anyone who disregards these purposes is subject to removal from the building and/or restriction of library privileges.
